ARHU Center Spotlight: NFLC

The U.S. Department of Education awarded ARHU's National Foreign Language Center and UMD's College of Education one of their Language Resource Center grants. The LRC will provide research-driven, high-quality professional learning opportunities for K-12 language teachers and post-secondary instructors, with a focus on community college instructors and educators who specialize in less-commonly taught languages.

NEH Summer Stipend Limited Submission Competition

Summer stipends support individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both. Eligible projects usually result in articles, monographs, books, digital materials and publications, archaeological site reports, translation, or editions. Summer Stipends provide $6,000 for two consecutive months of full-time research and writing. Further information about the program is available here. Deadline: Sept. 14, 2018
