VPR Tier Program Changes

UMD Division of Research (VPR) Maryland Catalyst Funds, formerly known as the Faculty Incentive Program, is UMD's internal faculty research support program. The new program consists of five funding categories. Please note the November 1 and May 1 deadlines. Click here for more information.

DIVISION OF RESEARCH

Arts and Humanities Dean's Lecture Series

As part of the Year of Immigration, Pulitzer Prize-winning novelist Viet Thanh Nguyen will present "Refugees, Immigrants, Americans: Changing Our Stories." For more information and to reserve your free tickets: www.go.umd.edu/vtn

Faculty Spotlight: Craig Kier

Craig Kier's recent work not only advances ways of experiencing opera, but also illustrates how a cross-campus partnership can succeed. Kier has successfully collaborated with Amitabh Varshney, Dean of the School of Engineering, to apply a fully immersive opera experience to pain management. See details of Kier's work here, and watch a video describing his recent project here.

NEH/Maryland Humanities Visit Day

Join us on October 26 from 10-11:30am to meet with program officers from NEH and Maryland Humanities. Get the latest information about funding opportunities in your interest areas and receive personalized feedback on your ideas. Email arichers@umd.edu to sign up for a one-on-one session.

Can we list you as an expert?

ARHU is developing a database to better track faculty expertise areas. These lists will be used for research partnerships, grants, and media requests. If you wish to be included please click here.
