ARHU Research Leadership Transition

Linda Aldoory has been named Dean of American University's College of Arts and Sciences. Effective July 1, 2022, Professor of Communication Trevor Parry-Giles, will step away from his current role as Associate Dean for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI), to serve a two-year term as the Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs and Research.

Thinking of applying for UMD's Grand Challenges Grants?

We can provide you with guidance and support through the entire application process. All ARHU Grand Challenges applicants should complete the ARHU Intent to Submit Form as soon as possible. Because these are significant, multi-year grants, we will require your full proposal to be submitted to the Dean's office for review one month in advance of the deadline (June 1 for Institutional Grants, August 30 for Project Grants). As noted in the grant announcement, a cost share is required for this opportunity which will comprise commitments from the dean's office and a meaningful cost share from your department. Please

RESEARCH

Teaching & Learning Grants 2022

The University of Maryland invites proposals from the instructional community that will advance our strategic commitment to reimagining the future of teaching and learning at Maryland. Academic and programmatic units may submit proposals in two different categories: course-level and program-level. For more information about eligibility, funding priorities, key dates, and the submission process, please visit the TLTC website.

Deadline: June 10, 2022

NEH Summer Stipends

The National Endowment for the Humanities' Summer Stipends program aims to stimulate new research in the humanities and its publication. Summer Stipends provide $6,000 in support for continuous full-time work on a humanities project for a period of two consecutive months. NEH funds may support recipients' compensation, travel, and other costs related to the proposed scholarly research. Click here to read more about the campus nomination process.
